HELPING KIDS THRIVE WHEN SCHOOL'S OUT

Every child in Georgia, especially our most vulnerable children, need to eat healthy, stay safe, and continue to learn. This year, GeorgiaSummer.org features more resources than ever before to help families.

- Find meal assistance
- Locate safe, licensed summer programs and virtual camps
- Join Georgia Public Library Service's virtual summer reading program
- Gain access to high-quality digital learning resources
- Choose from thousands of free digital books from Renaissance MyOn
- And lots more

Connect with other Georgians by using the hashtag #SchoolsOutGA to share your photos and stories.

Look Again. Never leave a child unattended in your vehicle. If you see a child alone in a vehicle, call 911.
